WAS IN FLAMES

When the Inmates Were Around From Their Chamber.

An Early Morning Fire Damages a House Occupied by Wm. Emrich and Family.

About 3 o'clock this morning, Mrs. William Emrich, living at 733 south Metcalf street, was awakened by the crackling of fire, and after arousing her husband, discovered the rear portion of their house was in flames.

Hastily dressing themselves, they found that the flames could not be extinguished without the fire department, and commenced removing their household goods, nearly all of which they saved without being damaged to any extent.

A man living in the neighborhood, whose name was unknown, went to box 53, at Kirby and Metcalf streets, and was so slow in discovering how to pull the box that the property came near being destroyed, and an adjoining house was threatened with a similar fate.

The man who tried to send the fire alarm, had been unfortunate enough to read two or three accounts of fire published in the Rep. Gas. about alarms having been "keyed in," and the excited man, after breaking the glass, twisted the key which opened the door of the alarm box until he had almost broken his fingers trying to "key in" the alarm.

Finally he accidentally pulled the door open and realized that all he had to do was to pull down the little brass hook inside the box.

He pulled the hook and was gratified by hearing the number of the box tolled by the tower bell at the central station.

The South Side department was soon at the scene and was followed by the ladder truck from the central station. The front part of the house was saved, and by hard work the flames were prevented from igniting the adjoining house.

The damaged property is owned by Mearns, Lowe & Melville and the loss of probably $400 is covered by insurance.

The fire is thought to have started from a pan of ashes in the shed kitchen at the rear of the main building. Had the alarm been given in good time it is quite probable that the shed would have been only part of the property damaged.

MORE BILLS

Presented, the Result of the Small Fox Flurry.

Among Others is an Item for Whiskey Board of Health Meeting Last Evening.

AT THE ST. MARY'S END.

The Board of Health met in the mayor's office, last night, with all members present except Mr. Moore.

After the regular bills were allowed, a number of old bills, created by reason of the few cases of smallpox some time ago, were taken up.

The Mammoth Clothing Co. had a bill for $40 for dusters furnished Dr. Steiner and Bert Campbell, used in the burial of Wm. Price, the smallpox victim.

The bill was laid over until the next meeting.

A bill from J. B. Lomison, for $20 was next brought up. The bill was for tomatoes, veal roasts, lemons, oranges, ligs, whisky and other articles of luxury furnished for the pest house. The purchasing committee knew nothing of the bill having been contracted, and it was also laid over.

The attorney for the Koehler family, who were at the pest house under quarantine for a few weeks, offered to reduce their former bill of $144, which was rejected at a previous meeting, to less than one-fourth that amount. This was also deferred until next meeting.

The bill for $25 which the board had allowed J. A. Crowley, for assistance in the burial of the unfortunate Price, but which was referred back by the city council, was next taken up and discussed. The bill was O. K'd by ex-health officer Steiner, but had been rejected by the council. The board finally decided to send it before that body again for final disposition.

Miss Emma Schrider, who was at the pest house with the Koehler family, wanted $26 for her services, but her bill was laid on the table indefinitely.

Ed Swartout wanted $40 for clothing, etc., that he had to burn after having the case of smallpox in his house. The board respectfully referred the bill back to the claimant.

Bill for $18, claimed by J. A. Simpson for an overcoat used in the moving of patients to the pest house, was laid on the table.

Health Officer Rudy made the following report for the month of June:

Deaths, 25; births, 10; cases of scarlet fever, 4; typhoid fever, 1; vaults condemned, 157; cleaned, 114; disinfected, 44; new ones constructed, 6; dead animals removed from city, 20; back yards cleaned, 10; loads of rubbish hauled out, 15.

The sanitary officers reported the following nuisances which were, upon motion, ordered abated:

Unsanitary vaults at No. 130 south Pierce street, 464 and 542 north West street and 730, 926, 941 and 209 to 215 north Main street.

Harry Levy, manager of Capt. L. D. Blondell, champion long distance runner, is in the city.

Prof. Chas. Wingerer, of Celina, from the firm of Heberholzer & Co., is visiting Prof. Ambrose Koeler.

Mrs. Fidelia Fales, of Toledo, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. John Rechner, of No. 446 west McKibben street.

Surprised.

While W. H. Marshall, of 524 east Market street was up town last night the guest of his mother, Mrs. Mattie Welsh—Miss Maude Adkins, of Nebraska, was the guest of her friend.

Miss Letta High, last week—Miss Joe Tehan, of Lima, and cousin, the Misses Lehan, of St. Louis, were the guests of Miss Mary Baker last week.
